GROWER

Mastroberardino

Mastroberardino is one of the leading wineries and wine families in all of Italy, in terms of production, market impact, and innovation. The family's storied history dates back to the early 18th century. As one of Italy's top winemaking estates, it holds a proud place in Italy's viticultural history... Read More

REGION

Campania

Campania is a beautiful region in southern Italy centred around Naples. Abundant sunshine, hillside vineyards and volcanic soils make the region well-suited for the production of quality wine, which is concentrated mainly on local, traditional grape varieties. Of these, Aglianico produces superb red... Read More

GRAPE

Fiano

Fiano is a native Italian grape which is grown across southern Italy, most notably in Campania and the DOCG of Fiano di Avellino. The grapes produce richly textured wines with a golden hue and elegant flavours of hazelnuts and honeyed lemon.

TASTING NOTES

Mastroberadino Heritage Fiano di Avellino 2024. Rounded and elegant, this wine aged in stainless steel with 4â€“5 months on fine lees for added texture. This Fiano has lovely aromas of pear, hazelnut, and wild herbs, with a structured palate and a long, elegant finish.

Food Matches

Roast Chicken with Rosemary, Gnocchi with Pumpkin Cream & Grilled Langoustines
