TASTING NOTES

Dericbourg Cuvée de Réserve Champagne. From the family-owned winery of vigneron Gaston Dericbourg, this traditional Non-Vintage is composed of three Champagne grape varieties including Chardonnay, Pinot Meunier, and Pinot Noir, which showcases the complexity of oak and elegance. On the palate, gentle biscuit aromas are complemented by delicate fine bubbles. A fantastically fresh and textured Champagne that is great on its own or as an aperitif with canapés.

GROWER

Champagne Gaston Dericbourg

Champagne Dericbourg was founded in the town of Pierry by locally renowned vigneron, Gaston Dericbourg in 1921. In 1960, the childless Gaston entrusted the house to his close friends, the Mandois family, and the family run the operation to this day, with Gaston's godson, Claude Mandois currently at ... REGION

Champagne

Champagne is a region in the north-east of France famous the world over for its sparkling wine of the same name and concentrated around the towns of Reims, Epernay and Ay. Vines are cultivated near the northern-most extreme of latitude for viticulture, and the cool climate results in the high acidity... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
