GROWER

Three Choirs

Growing grapes in this part of England is nothing new. The Romans were growing vines here some 2000 years ago and the tradition was carried on into the Middle Ages by the monasteries who reputedly made wines to rival those of the continent. Building on this long tradition, Three Choirs was founded i... Read More

GRAPE

Seyval Blanc

Seyval Blanc is a light skinned grape variety which ripens early and is ideally suited to relatively cool climates such as England, where it is the single most planted variety. It produces crisp white wines which may benefit from a degree of barrel ageing, and is versatile, used as a varietal wine, ... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Very fruit driven style with 18 months lees ageing. Delicious notes of lemon curd and green apple are followed by creaminess brought on by the lees. Crisp, with refreshing acidity.
