Three Choirs

Growing grapes in this part of England is nothing new. The Romans were growing vines here some 2000 years ago and the tradition was carried on into the Middle Ages by the monasteries who reputedly made wines to rival those of the continent. Building on this long tradition, Three Choirs was founded i... Read More

Gloucestershire

The south-west of England, including Gloucestershire, has long been an important part of the story of English wine-making - grapes have been cultivated here as far back as the 8th century. The region, like many English vineyard areas, is particularly cool and lies at the northernmost latitude of the... Read More

Regent

Regent is a dark-skinned hybrid variety that was developed in Germany in 1967 by crossing Chambourcim and Diana. It ripens early and enjoys the cooler climates making it perfect for Switzerland, England and the cooler regions of the United States. The vine produces good yields of largish grapes and i...
