TASTING NOTES

Partial botrytis grapes give this wine a delicious aroma of caramel and candied lemon with a hint of spice. On the palate, mouthwatering acidity, sweet lime citrus with straw are followed by minerality driven from the schist and slate soil.

GROWER

Château Pierre Bise

Situated in the heart of the Anjou appellation, Château Pierre-Bise has gone from an original 9ha estate in 1959 to 50ha of prime vineyard plots in Anjou, Savennieres, Coteaux du Layon and Quarts de Chaume. Today it is considered to be one of the leading producers in Anjou and the Loire Valley. A th... Read More

REGION

Loire

The Loire Valley is a well known wine producing region of Central France, defined by the river Loire which runs through it before emptying into the Atlantic Ocean. The region itself is so large and diverse that generalisations about terroir and soils are impossible, but the most well-known appellati... Read More

GRAPE

Chenin Blanc

Chenin Blanc is perhaps one of the world's most versatile grape varieties, used for bone dry, white table wine and sparkling wines right through to some of the longest-lived sweet wines to be found. Broadly speaking, Chenin exhibits floral aromas, crisp green apple flavours and zippy acidity, while ... Read More
