TASTING NOTES

Pascal Bouchard Chablis Premier Cru Vau de Vey 2018. This wine is from a mineral driven and sustainable vineyard, located on the Left Bank of the Serein River, reflecting the elegance of a northern Burgundy. After pressing, 70% of the grapes are fermented in stainless steel tanks, whilst the remaining 30% undergo a French oak fermentation, then aged on fine lees for 10 months. Right before bottling, the wines are blended and undergo a final ageing period all in stainless steel tanks. The result is a lovely 1er Cru Chablis which is rounded and has a nice structure and persistence.

GROWER

Romain Bouchard

In 2005 Romain Bouchard took over Domaine de la Grande Chaume, a Domaine of 3.38 hectares of vines located in two beautiful areas. Right from the start, Romain introduced rigorous methods towards his viticulture with respect to nature in order to obtain the optimum quality of grapes. Much work is ... Read More

REGION

Chablis

Chablis is Burgundy's white wine outpost and is one of France's most northern wine regions. Having said this it comes with no surprise that it produces wines that are high in acidity and rather steely, unlike the luscious and oaky white wines from the rest of Burgundy. They are perfectly refreshing ... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
