REGION

Provence

Provence is an important wine producing region in southern France. Named by the Romans as provincia nostra ("our province"), the region produces white, red and rosé wines from a wide variety of different grape varieties. Rhône varietals such as Syrah and Grenache perform particularly well in the war... Read More

GRAPE

Cinsault

Cinsault is a classic red grape variety of the Languedoc that has much in common with Grenache. It tends to produce lighter, softer and more approachable reds than many other grape varieties, and as such its pretty, delicate red and summer fruit flavours are particularly suited to the production of ... TASTING NOTES

Pure & crisp with a good grip and fine extract. Strawberry and red berry fruit flavours develop the elegant fruit notes and long persistency. Subtle citrus and delicate floral flavours. Château d'Esclans identifies vineyards, grapes and wines from Château d'Esclans as well as local growers to make a rose from the highest quality grapes.
