GROWER

Domaine Montrose

The name Montrose refers to its geographic location on a volcano (Mont) and to the pink (Rose) flowered almond trees surrounding the vineyard. The Domaine was founded in 1701 when the owner's (Bernard Coste) ancestor received its coat of arms from King Louis XIV's counsellor. Since 1701 Montrose has... Read More

REGION

Loire

The Loire Valley is a well known wine producing region of Central France, defined by the river Loire which runs through it before emptying into the Atlantic Ocean. The region itself is so large and diverse that generalisations about terroir and soils are impossible, but the most well-known appellati... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Pale pink colour, with silvery tinge. This is the colour that is referred to as "il de perdrix" or "partridge's eye". It is made with Pineau d'Aunis, an ancient local variety. Refreshing mouthful, supported by a round structure that will deliver white fruits flavours. The slightly spicy and white peppered finish is typical of this variety.
