GROWER

Mas Alta

Mas Alta has championed a lavish and expressive style of wine, but there has been a slow evolution in the cellar. Priorat is the most expensive Spanish region. Our new premium bodega in Priorat, the last of the key Spanish regions missing from the Jascots range. Highly rated in recent Decanter review... Read More

GRAPE

Carignan

Carignan is a late-ripening, black grape variety mainly cultivated in southern France and appearing equally frequently as a 100% varietal and blended wine. It also plays a major part in the Priorat wines of Spain, known locally as Carinena, where some of the finest Carignan dominated wines are to be... Read More

TASTING NOTES

CIRERETS is a blend of 60 years old vines and the two truly local varieties of grapes from Priorat: grenache and carignan. This is a well-balanced wine, which is fresh, elegant and intense at the same time.
