Château de Caraguilhes

Since Greek merchants first introduced the cultivation of vines to the Languedoc more than 2,000 years ago, the Corbières region has been a prime region for wine making. In 1958, Lionel Faivre, an Algerian wine maker took over Caraguilhes with the ambition of making authentic wine with organic grape... Read More

Carignan

Carignan is a late-ripening, black grape variety mainly cultivated in southern France and appearing equally frequently as a 100% varietal and blended wine. It also plays a major part in the Priorat wines of Spain, known locally as Carinena, where some of the finest Carignan dominated wines are to be... Read More

TASTING NOTES

A fantastic value red packed with juicy red fruit and well integrated tannins. The Cochon Volant range is a reference to the boars who eat their grapes every year before harvest, as stealing and flying share the same word in French, they decided to make these flying pigs and not thieves.
