GRAPE

Malbec

Malbec is a red grape variety once popular in Bordeaux, but now the grape is found mainly in Cahors, Southern France and is currently enjoying a renaissance in Argentina, where it has found a new home and is very much in the ascendency. In Argentina, and specifically Mendoza, Malbec is by far the most... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Grapes for this wine come from vineyards located at altitudes between 1000 and 1200m, the changes in temperature throughout the day enable a slow maturation, developing complex aromas and flavors of plums, candied black cherries, blackberries, truffles and spices. Full bodied, complex with ripe fine grained tannins. Great balance between alcohol, acidity and fruit with long finish.

Food Matches

Slow braised beef, Quesadillas & Manchego
