TASTING NOTES

Sartarelli Balciana Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico Superior 2020. Sartarelli Balciana 2020 is a late-harvest Verdicchio from a single vineyard in Le Marche, offering remarkable depth and elegance. The wine reveals aromas of ripe stone fruit, honey, and floral notes, with hints of citrus and minerality. The palate is rich yet balanced, with vibrant acidity and a long, persistent finish. A wine of complexity and finesse, perfect for pairing with refined dishes or enjoying on its own.

REGION

Marche

Marche was long kept from realizing its full potential as a premium wine-growing area by poverty and geography; even with the relative prosperity of recent decades and the improvements in communication lines, Marche is still off the beaten track, but it has been recognised as the New Tuscany. The ar... Read More

GRAPE

Verdicchio

Verdicchio is one of Italy's classic white grape varieties, responsible for the much-vaunted Verdicchios - di Matelica and Castelli dei Jesi. Less famously, it is also often used as a high quality component for many Italian white blends from regions such as Marche and Umbria, to name just two. It ha... Read More
