TASTING NOTES

Domaine Les Goubert 2021. A spicy and fruity Cotes du Rhone from top Gigondas producer Domaine les Goubert. Fermented in concrete vats, grapes are destemmed and lightly crushed with 15-day maceration. The nose is mineral first and then fruity, letting the black cherry blossom flourish to some notes of white pepper.

GROWER

Domaine Les Goubert

The historic Domaine Les Goubert, currently in organic conversion, is located just outside Gigondas and has been run by the Goubert family for many generations. The oldest part of the winery dates back to 1636. Florence Cartier, the current winemaker, believes that great wines are made by terroir -... Read More

GRAPE

Carignan

Carignan is a late-ripening, black grape variety mainly cultivated in southern France and appearing equally frequently as a 100% varietal and blended wine. It also plays a major part in the Priorat wines of Spain, known locally as Carinena, where some of the finest Carignan dominated wines are to be... Read More
