TASTING NOTES

Domaine Les Goubert 2021. A spicy and fruity Cotes du Rhone from top Gigondas producer Domaine les Goubert. Fermented in concrete vats, grapes are destemmed and lightly crushed with 15-day maceration. The nose is mineral first and then fruity, letting the black cherry blossom flourish to some notes of white pepper.

Carignan

Carignan is a late-ripening, black grape variety mainly cultivated in southern France and appearing equally frequently as a 100% varietal and blended wine. It also plays a major part in the Priorat wines of Spain, known locally as Carinena, where some of the finest Carignan dominated wines are to be... Read More
