TASTING NOTES

Chateau de Chamirey Mercurey Blanc 2020. This vintage opens with a bright palate of citrus, stone fruit and lovely florals with a hint of a woody tone and acidity. On the nose, expect to pick up vanilla and oak, followed by peach and pear. This wine comes from the Mercurey appellation of Burgundy's Cote Chalonnaise, that balances a white traditional Burgundian wine.

REGION

Burgundy

Burgundy is a region in eastern France famous for its red and white wines made almost exclusively from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay respectively. Sparkling wine, known as Cremant de Bourgogne, is produced using the traditional method, usually from a blend of these grape varieties. Vineyards are based on... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
