TASTING NOTES

Domaine Daniel-Etienne Defaix Chablis Vieilles Vignes 2020. Not an oaked Chablis, although the extended lees stirring and aging employed might suggest otherwise. This is an 'old vine' cuvee from vineyards of Kimmeridgian limestone. Hands-off winemaking in temperature controlled stainless steel includes said long-term batonnage and no fining or filtration beyond natural settling. This one will repay aging to allow the wine's pithy texture to get more complex and grainy. Rich, firm, with a hint of uppish acidity and flintiness. Expect notes of lemon and saline with aromas of oak, zest and honey.

REGION

Chablis

Chablis is Burgundy's white wine outpost and is one of France's most northern wine regions. Having said this it comes with no surprise that it produces wines that are high in acidity and rather steely, unlike the luscious and oaky white wines from the rest of Burgundy. They are perfectly refreshing ... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
