REGION

Friuli

The Friuli region is nestled between Veneto and Slovenia at the crossroads of Europe's Mediterranean and central European cultures. This translates into fascinating wines which have made the region famous for its complex whites and seriously structured reds from blends, international varieties or lo... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Vitovska is an indigenous grape to the Karst area in the region of Friuli-Venezia Giulia. Enticing aromas of blossom pollen, beeswax and aromatic herbs such as thyme and savoury oregano lift from the glass. On the palate, it is fresh and dry with an incredible sense of minerality rushing across the palate.
