TASTING NOTES

Sylvain Bzikot Puligny Montrachet 2022. Elegant and powerful, approximately half the wine from this vintage is fermented in one-year-old French oak barrels, the rest in stainless steel to preserve freshness. There is a lovely aroma of white flowers, honeysuckle, lemon peel and pear. The palate is creamy yet restrained, offering nectarine and apple fruit framed by bright acidity and a chalky mineral finish.

REGION

Burgundy

Burgundy is a region in eastern France famous for its red and white wines made almost exclusively from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay respectively. Sparkling wine, known as Cremant de Bourgogne, is produced using the traditional method, usually from a blend of these grape varieties.Vineyards are based on... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
