TASTING NOTES

Ramon Bilbao Mirto 2018. This wine is only produced in exceptional years from the finest old vines of Tempranillo that are 90 years or older, sourced from eight villages around Haro. The wine undergoes malolactic fermentation in the cask with batonnage. Once finished, the wine is aged for 18 months in new French Allier oak barrels with carefully selected toast, and then bottled without fining or filtering. The wine itself is intense ruby red. And has aromas of black fruits and ripe cherries, with notes of white pepper, eucalyptus and mint. The tertiary aromas of wood emerge with hints of dark chocolate, coffee, and cigars. This young, well-balanced wine is long and creamy, with fresh acidity and ripe tannins on the palate.
