TASTING NOTES

Gratien & Meyer Cuvée Flamme Crémant de Loire Non Vintage. This Crémant de Loire is made up of of Chardonnay, Cabernet Franc and Chenin Blanc using the Traditional Method, and then aged for around 3 years. It is fresh with hints of white fruits, crisp zest, and a touch of gourmand aromas. Overall, there is a luscious texture to the fizz and bright character perfect for an aperitif.

REGION

Loire

The Loire Valley is a well known wine producing region of Central France, defined by the river Loire which runs through it before emptying into the Atlantic Ocean. The region itself is so large and diverse that generalisations about terroir and soils are impossible, but the most well-known appellati... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod...
