TASTING NOTES

Argento Altamira Single Vineyard Malbec 2021 Organic. Nestled at 1,090 meters above sea level in Uco Valley, the Finca Altamira vineyard benefits from dramatic diurnal swings, with daytime heat softened by crisp Andean nights, and sits on coarse, rocky soils fed by snowmelt. The 2021 vintage exhibits a deep violet hue, accompanied by a nose of black plum, violet florals, and exotic spice, capturing the vineyard's mineral core. On the palate, it balances juicy red and dark berry with a stony edge and plush, velvety tannins, finishing long and reflective of its high-altitude origin. This organic Malbec is pure, elegant, and distinctly Andes-defined.

REGION

Mendoza

The largest and most important wine-growing region in Argentina, Mendoza is in the extreme west of the country, significantly separated from the Chilean border by Andes mountains. These mountains are by far the region's most dominant feature, providing shelter for the vineyards which lie at an altit... Read More

GRAPE

Malbec

Malbec is a red grape variety once popular in Bordeaux, but now the grape is found mainly in Cahors, Southern France and is currently enjoying a renaissance in Argentina, where it has found a new home and is very much in the ascendency. In Argentina, and specifically Mendoza, Malbec is by far the mos... Read More
