GROWER

Maison Sabadie

Masion Sabadie is situated in the very heart of sunny Languedoc in Southern France, where they use mainly traditional Mediterranean varieties that just flourish in their natural environment. Soils at Maison Sabadie are volcanic, and the typically warm and dry Mediterranean climate allows for a long a... Read More

GRAPE

Vermentino

Vermentino is a pretty, delicate and aromatic white grape variety widely grown in southern Italy and, increasingly in the Languedoc-Roussillon, where it is permitted in many appellations and widely used at Pays d'Oc level where it is an important component of many multi-grape blends.

TASTING NOTES

Maison Sabadie Reserve Blanc 2023. Elegant and light, this crisp and refreshing Vermentino and Colombard blend has delicate aromas of lemon, white flowers and lots of pear, followed by a luscious palate with balanced acidity and pear and lemon flavours. The finish has minerality which reflects the Southern France soil nuances.
