REGION

Chablis

Chablis is Burgundy's white wine outpost and is one of France's most northern wine regions. Having said this it comes with no surprise that it produces wines that are high in acidity and rather steely, unlike the luscious and oaky white wines from the rest of Burgundy. They are perfectly refreshing ... Read More

GRAPE

Chardonnay

Chardonnay is arguably the best known and most versatile white grape variety in the wine world. Its traditional homeland is that of Burgundy, where it is responsible for such names as Chablis, Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet to name but a few, but it has also found success in almost every wine-prod... ## TASTING NOTES

Daniel Etienne Defaix Chablis Premier Cru Les Lys 2013. This is believed to be one of the oldest Premier Cru Chablis from the region, with not as many classic Chablis notes. Expect nutty, earthy and a bit of a honey to the notes. On the nose this wine has persistent mineral undertones with aromas of jasmine and white truffle. The palate is balanced with the earthiness interwind, textured with lingering notes of buttery brioche.
