REGION

Provence

Provence is an important wine producing region in southern France. Named by the Romans as provincia nostra ("our province"), the region produces white, red and rosé wines from a wide variety of different grape varieties. Rhône varietals such as Syrah and Grenache perform particularly well in the war... Read More

GRAPE

Cinsault

Cinsault is a classic red grape variety of the Languedoc that has much in common with Grenache. It tends to produce lighter, softer and more approachable reds than many other grape varieties, and as such its pretty, delicate red and summer fruit flavours are particularly suited to the production of ... TASTING NOTES

Maurel Freres Moon Rose 2024. Delicately pale salmon pink, the light and organic rose is fragrant with lifted aromas of strawberry and ripe cherry transitioning into soft peach. The palate shines with zesty grapefruit and citrus, cutting through a generous burst of red fruit energy. Crisp, refreshing, and imbued with Provencal charm.
