TASTING NOTES

Spier Good Natured Chenin Blanc 2024. Nestled in Stellenbosch's clay and granite soils, this wine thrives under holistic, regenerative farming. In the glass, the aromatic wine presents a pale gold hue, leading into notes of citrus peel and lemon zest, followed by ripe stone fruits, such as peach. Subtle tropical notes of litchi and pineapple play a role, while a refined minerality grounds the fruit flavours. The palate feels juicy and vibrant, finishing with a zesty lift that feels both fresh and rounded. Elegant and balanced, this Chenin Blanc reveals a mid-weight body with bright acidity that frames the fruit, making it both accessible now and suitable for short to medium aging.
