GRAPE

Zweigelt

Zweigelt (pronounced TSVYE-gelt) was developed in 1922 in Austria by a scientist crossing Saint Laurent and Blaufränkisch. Today, it is the most widely planted red variety in Austria and is gaining popularity in Canada. A hearty grape able to stand up to the cooler growing conditions, it produces wi... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Talisman Bull's Blood 2019. This blend of Kekfrankos, Zweigelt and Blauer Portugiser offers ripe dark fruit aromas of plum and black raspberry, overlaid with black pepper. On the palate, expect an intense raspberry and plum flavour with a firm structure, and a fine spice-tinged finish from six months in oak barrels.

Food Matches

Hungarian Goulash, Wildboar Sausages & Chicken with Black Truffle
