TASTING NOTES

Yohan Lardy Moulin à Vent Vieilles Vignes de 1951 2022. Made from a single vineyard planted in 1951, this crimson red Gamay has notes of strawberry and cherry fruit. On the palate, it is rich and fruity followed by minerality and a long finish. This wine was made with semi-carbonic maceration with whole clusters at low temperature for 18 days.

REGION

Beaujolais

Beaujolais is a region in central-eastern France which is famous for its red wines produced from the Gamay grape variety. Most of the wines produced are made using a wine-making technique known as Carbonic Maceration which results in lighter wines than those from many other regions. Generally speaki... Read More

GRAPE

Gamay

Gamay is a French red grape variety which is solely responsible for the wines of Beaujolais in central-eastern France. Its full name is Gamay Noir à Jus Blanc which draws attention to the fact that it is a red grape variety, but has pale flesh and therefore pale juice. The vine is precocious, budding... Read More
