REGION

Tuscany

Tuscany is arguably one of the most important wine-producing regions in Italy, where it is known locally as Toscana. A full 68% of the region is classified as 'hilly' and hillside vineyards produce the overwhelming majority of the highest quality wines. Sangiovese, the region's signature grape varie... TASTING NOTES

Canalicchio di Sopra La Casaccia Brunello di Montalcino 2019. Aged in Slavonian oak for 36 months, this bold Brunello combines elegance and power, with concentrated aromas of dark fruits, such as blackberry, blackcurrant and plum with a pinch of smoke, alongside a palate full of silky smooth tannins and more dark berries.
