TASTING NOTES

Pech Sirech Cahors 2021. A deep, garnet-red wine that reflects the elegance of Cahors's highest terroirs. The nose is expressive with ripe black fruit, hints of violet, and subtle mineral notes. On the palate, it is full-bodied yet refined, with silky tannins, vibrant freshness, and a long, persistent finish marked by precision and depth. Crafted from hand-harvested grapes grown on white clay and Kimmeridgian limestone soils, vinified parcel by parcel under strict biodynamic principles, this wine combines richness with remarkable finesse.

REGION

Cahors

Straddling the River Lot Cahors is by far the most famous of all Southwest France's wine regions. Cahors is a small town located 100 miles east of Bordeaux. It is known for inky, fascinating red wines made from Malbec (Côt). These inky "black wines" have long had their champions. Favoured by King He... Read More

GRAPE

Malbec

Malbec is a red grape variety once popular in Bordeaux, but now the grape is found mainly in Cahors, Southern France and is currently enjoying a renaissance in Argentina, where it has found a new home and is very much in the ascendency. In Argentina, and specifically Mendoza, Malbec is by far the mos... Read More
