GRAPE

Vermentino

Vermentino is a pretty, delicate and aromatic white grape variety widely grown in southern Italy and, increasingly in the Languedoc-Roussillon, where it is permitted in many appellations and widely used at Pays d'Oc level where it is an important component of many multi-grape blends.

TASTING NOTES

La Source Reserve Blanc 2024. A fresh and aromatic white blend of Vermentino and Colombard from Pays dâ€™Oc. Crafted with skin maceration and low-temperature fermentation to enhance fruit purity and structure, followed by gentle pneumatic pressing. The nose reveals vibrant notes of citrus and white fruit, while the palate is crisp and balanced, with lively acidity and a smooth mouthfeel.
