TASTING NOTES

Francois Villard St Peray Version 2022. Made from Marsanne and Roussanne, this vintage is from 20 year old vines. It is aged for 10-13 months in oak barrels with occasional lees stirring. There are aromas of finely woven orchard fruit, and honeyed almond followed by subtle herbal hints and soft, chalky minerality. On the palate, expect layers of gentle creaminess and lively acidity, culminating in an elegant finish.

GRAPE

Marsanne

Marsanne is an increasingly popular white grape variety produced in many countries of the world and most likely originating in France's Rhône Valley. It is particularly renascent in southern France, where it is an important ingredient in many of the local blends and is also popular as a full-bodied,... Read More
