GROWER

Mas de la Source

The Domaine Robert Vic is an estate located in Preignes, separated from the Mediterranean by a small extinct volcano. This proximity to the seas has a moderating effect on the vineyards ensuring that complexity develops in the grapes during the ripening process. The winery is housed in a magnificent... GRAPE

Carignan

Carignan is a late-ripening, black grape variety mainly cultivated in southern France and appearing equally frequently as a 100% varietal and blended wine. It also plays a major part in the Priorat wines of Spain, known locally as Carinena, where some of the finest Carignan dominated wines are to be... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Mas des Caprices Ze Fitour 2021. Structured and complex, this red blend of Carignan, Grenache and Mourvedre features aromas of dark berries, plum and licorice followed by earthy and herbaceous spice. On the palate, expect fresh acidity and subtle tannins. Fresh and charming.
