TASTING NOTES

Mastroberardino Heritage Falanghina del Sannio 2023. Falanghina is a very popular wine, for its freshness and generosity in perfumes. This wine is straw yellow in colour with fresh and fruity bouquet with strong and persistent notes of citrus, tropical fruits, peach, banana and white flowers. On the palate it has broad, soft, mouth-filling feel with sour-ripe aromatic energy and fruity finish.

Food Matches

Fried Anchovies with Lemon, Zucchini Fritters & Ricotta Ravioli with Sage

GROWER

Mastroberardino

Mastroberardino is one of the leading wineries and wine families in all of Italy, in terms of production, market impact, and innovation. The family's storied history dates back to the early 18th century. As one of Italy's top winemaking estates, it holds a proud place in Italy's viticultural history... Read More

REGION

Campania

Campania is a beautiful region in southern Italy centred around Naples. Abundant sunshine, hillside vineyards and volcanic soils make the region well-suited for the production of quality wine, which is concentrated mainly on local, traditional grape varieties. Of these, Aglianico produces superb red... Read More

GRAPE

Falanghina

Falanghina (pronounced FA-lan-GHEE-nah) is a white grape native to the Italian region of Campania where its cultivation is centred around the province Benevento north of Napoli. Whilst the grape has always produced lean wines with fresh acidity, the application of modern, cool temperature winemaking... Read More
