TASTING NOTES

Spier Savanha Merlot 2023. Nestled in the warm yet breezy valleys of the Western Cape, the vines that produce the 2023 Savanha Merlot thrive on decomposed granite and sandstone soils, some lying within 50 miles of the cool Atlantic coast. These terroir elements grant the wine a vibrant tension between ripeness and refreshing acidity. This is an accessible, fruit-driven wine filled with plum and raspberry aromas, layers of red berries and a hint of spice on the palate, supported by a soft tannin structure and warmth.
