TASTING NOTES

Sartarelli Classico is the result of 100% Verdicchio grapes picked by hand in Sartarelli's youngest vineyards. Its straw yellow color with greenish reflections emphasizes the quality of the grapes and the delicate techniques during the working phases. A simple but not common wine, with white peach, elder, hawthorn aromas. Fresh and sapid, soft on the palate, with a good alcoholic structure and a slightly bitter almond aftertaste.

REGION

Marche

Marche was long kept from realizing its full potential as a premium wine-growing area by poverty and geography; even with the relative prosperity of recent decades and the improvements in communication lines, Marche is still off the beaten track, but it has been recognised as the New Tuscany. The ar... Read More

GRAPE

Verdicchio

Verdicchio is one of Italy's classic white grape varieties, responsible for the much-vaunted Verdicchios - di Matelica and Castelli dei Jesi. Less famously, it is also often used as a high quality component for many Italian white blends from regions such as Marche and Umbria, to name just two. It ha... Read More
