GROWER

Les Courtelles

Les Courtelles is situated in Pinet, a small village located in the heart of the Languedoc. The vineyard consists of a chalky plateau overlooking the Mediterranean sea, where the exceptional vineyard situation and uniqueness of the Picpoul variety make the appellation unlike any other in the world. ... GRAPE

Picpoul

Picpoul is a relatively unusual white grape variety found chiefly in the Languedoc Cru of Picpoul de Pinet producing green-gold, full-bodied white wine with concentrated citrus characteristics along France's mediterranean coast. It appears as one of France's few varietally named AC wines.

TASTING NOTES

A dry, elegant, and refreshing white wine from the shores of the Thau Lagoon in southern France. Bright and zesty, it offers aromas and flavors of citrus, green apple, and delicate blossom. The palate is crisp and well-balanced, with lively acidity and a clean, invigorating finish. Perfectly suited to seafood and shellfish, this wine captures the essence of Mediterranean sunshine and cooling sea breezes.
