TASTING NOTES

Francois Villard Les Contours de Mairlant 2023. Produced in the northern RhÃ´ne Valley, this still white wine reflects the estateâ€™s commitment to expressing terroir and natural balance. This white opens with an inviting bouquet of ripe stone fruits, citrus zest, and subtle floral notes, underpinned by a gentle minerality. On the palate, it is fresh and well-rounded, offering flavors of peach, apricot, and hints of almond, with a lively acidity that gives structure and elegance. The finish is long and harmonious, showcasing the purity of fruit and finesse typical of Villardâ€™s style.

GRAPE

Marsanne

Marsanne is an increasingly popular white grape variety produced in many countries of the world and most likely originating in France's Rhône Valley. It is particularly renascent in southern France, where it is an important ingredient in many of the local blends and is also popular as a full-bodied,... Read More
