REGION

Loire

The Loire Valley is a well known wine producing region of Central France, defined by the river Loire which runs through it before emptying into the Atlantic Ocean. The region itself is so large and diverse that generalisations about terroir and soils are impossible, but the most well-known appellati... Read More

GRAPE

Pinot Noir

Pinot Noir is the grape variety used in all quality red wines from Burgundy, and as a varietal wine in several parts of the New World, most notably New Zealand, California and Chile. It is also one of the three grape varieties commonly used in the production of Champagne and other traditional method... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Delicate pink in colour with a fine sparkle, this Crémant is produced using the same méthode traditionnelle as Champagne. It boasts fine smooth bubbles and floral, fruity aromas. On the palate, its citrus zest and elderberry character accentuate the refreshing, light finish.
